

Breeze Culture Network

Equality & Safeguarding Requirements for Practitioners

Freelance practitioners using the Breeze Culture Network are required to uphold the principles of equality and to have key safeguarding measures in place to protect children and young people. To make full use of the Breeze Culture Network you must have:

- an enhanced DBS Disclosure carried out within the last 2 years or a current DBS registration
- Public Liability Insurance to protect against third party claims
- Contact details of two referees relating to education and community work carried out within the past two years that may be taken up by prospective employers
